DEFENDANT'S SUPPLEMENTAL NOTICE ON THE DEATH OF HIS MOTHER

The defendant files this notice to inform the Court that his mother passed away on Oct. 15, 2024.

Defendant originally mailed his motion for compassionate release (C.R.) doc. 2240, on Sept. 25, 2024; about 20-days before his mother's death. The defendant did not inform the Court about the death previously, including at the time when he re-mailed his C.R. motion, following the Court's order of Oct. 15, 2024 (the Court ordering the defendant to refile his motion after redacting some materials attached) because he thought that it will be much appropriate to do that when he files his reply following the government's response. However, few days ago defendant was advised by someone who is both familiar with the law and the pending C.R. motion that he should inform the court about the death of his mother promptly.

Defendant's Intent to File Reply Upon Receiving Government's Response:

Defendant intends to file a reply in support to his C.R. motion. Per the Oct. 15, 2024 Court's order, the government's response was due on Dec. 20, 24. Defendant has not yet received the response. After he receive it, he will reply accordingly; since he expects that the government will oppose the C.R. motion. In his reply, the defendant intends to argue, among other things, that even after his mother's death, the court should still conclude that defendant's release is appropriate.
